

Art by Richard Dewar

Richard Dewar

The art shown here is featured on the cover of this edition of the Mariners Weather Log. The artist is Richard Dewar from Angus, Scotland.

Richard pursued architecture as a career, but after retiring from that field his interests turned to photographing and painting clouds and skies.

Dewar Art

His interest in clouds and skies was primarily aesthetic, aroused by their majesty, movement and the color of their ever-changing manifestations.

Richard uses pastels for his drawings.

